In Memory of John Cottier

Sad news. Fr John Cottier died on Monday 27th July, after a long battle with cancer. His funeral will be held This Wednesday 12th August at 10 am in St. Hilda's Church, North Perth—where John was a priest for many years. We advise you to get there early if you intend to be there as it will be a large funeral. John and his wife Judith have been long-time, well-loved members of our parish, usually attending the 07:30 am services on Sundays, with John often presiding at that Eucharist.

Over the years John also led the 9am services when our Priest was unavailable.

John and Judith met in PNG when both were there as missionaries for ABM.

We were very sad when they recently moved from Mount Lawley to Applecross because of John's health, but have been delighted to see them in our church several times since.

John was a wonderful man with a keen sense of humour and he will be sorely missed.

Our sincere condolences go to Judith and their family.

Baptism.

Cerys Worthing is to be baptised in the church at 11 am This Sunday 9th August. Her parents are John & Roxan. We offer them our prayers for a joyful celebration.
