

A reading from Exodus chapter 12 beginning at verse 1. [12:1-14]

1The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt:

2This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you.

3Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household.

4If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbour in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it.

5Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats.

6You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight.

7They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it.

8They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

9Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs.

10You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn.

11This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the Passover of the LORD.

12For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgements: I am the LORD.

13The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

14 This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 149

1. O praise the Lord, and sing to the Lord a new song:

O praise him in the assembly of the faithful.

2. Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:

let the children of Zion be joyful in their king.

3. Let them praise him in the dance:

let them sing his praise with timbrel and with harp.

4. For the lord takes delight in his people:

he adorns the meek with his salvation.

5. Let his faithful ones exult in his glory:

let them sing for joy upon their beds.

6. Let the high praises of God be in their mouths:

and a two-edged sword in their hands,

7. To execute vengeance on the nations:

and chastisement upon the peoples,

8. To bind their kings in chains:

and their nobles with fetters of iron,

9. To visit upon them the judgement that is decreed:

such honour belongs to all his faithful servants.

Praise the Lord.

Glory to God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit: as in the beginning, so now, and for ever. Amen

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans chapter 13 beginning at verse 1/ [13.1-10]

¹Let every person be subject to the governing authorities;

for there is no authority except from God, and those authorities that exist have been instituted by God.

²Therefore whoever resists authority resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgement.

³For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad.

Do you wish to have no fear of the authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive its approval;

⁴for it is God's servant for your good.

But if you do what is wrong, you should be afraid, for the authority does not bear the sword in vain!

It is the servant of God to execute wrath on the wrongdoer.

⁵Therefore one must be subject, not only because of wrath but also because of conscience.

⁶For the same reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, busy with this very thing.

⁷Pay to all what is due to them—taxes to whom taxes are due, revenue to whom revenue is due, respect to whom respect is due, honour to whom honour is due.

⁸Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.

⁹The commandments, 'You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal;

You shall not covet'; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word,

'Love your neighbour as yourself.'

¹⁰Love does no wrong to a neighbour; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew chapter 18 beginning at verse 10. [18.10-20]

¹⁰ 'Take care that you do not despise one of these little ones;

for, I tell you, in heaven their angels continually see the face of my Father in heaven.

¹²What do you think? If a shepherd has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray?

¹³And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray.

¹⁴So it is not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost.

¹⁵ 'If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone.

If the member listens to you, you have regained that one.

¹⁶But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

¹⁷If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church;

and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church,

let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax-collector.

¹⁸Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

¹⁹Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven.

²⁰For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.'
