The Holy Communion

The Anglican Church of Australia
offers the hospitality of the Altar to all baptised Christians who are normally communicants in their own churches.
Please feel welcome to receive Holy Communion
if your conscience permits.

Eucharist is celebrated every Sunday at 7:30 am and 9:00 am and Wednesdays at 9:00 am
An invitation is extended to morning tea following the 9:00 services

Sentence of the day (read by the Priest)

Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can it be seasoned?

Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.
Mark:9:50

Collect:

O God,
your Son has taught us that those who give a cup of water in his name will not lose their reward:
open our eyes to see those who are in need,
and teach us to set no store
by riches and earthly rewards,

so that,
in surrendering ourselves to serve you in your children,
we may labour for the treasure that endures;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

serve one another

So let us learn how to serve,
And in our lives
enthroned him;
Each other's needs
to prefer,
For it is Christ we're serving.

All seekers are welcome at the table of our Lord

Love in a Shoebox 2021 Co-ordinator still required Please. Trish is unwell and not able to administer this wonderful outreach this year. She has ordered the boxes and some fliers, but we need someone to follow through with seeing the boxes get handed out, filled and returned. Trish will get the boxes to the church when they arrive. Help Please. Contact Trish on 0424 486 730. Thank You.

Dave's Insight

Private Prayer

I don't know about you but as I age my prayer list gets longer. More and more people to pray for. As God knows us by name, I try to pray for people by name. Many years ago, as the list got longer, I pondered what I really wanted for the people I prayed for. I came to the conclusion that I wanted each and every person I prayed for, to be touched by Jesus' healing/saving love. This now what I pray for you and all I pray for. Love. Dave.
