Dave's Insight

The wise men from the east has always been a puzzle to me, perhaps it's because I'm West Australian and find it hard to believe there are wise men in the east ? Given where Jerusalem is, where did the wise men come from ? Perhaps China; perhaps India; perhaps Persia ? Did they set off together or did they meet up on the way and discovered their common purpose ? Did they arrive at the time of Jesus' birth or sometime later? They leave us with unanswerable questions. Legend simply tells us, they read the signs/prophecies about the coming of the world's Saviour and responded as best they could. We are blest because we too recognise Jesus Our Saviour, let us too, be wise and respond as best we can. Love Dave.
